

The following was published in the 1917 Brampton, Georgetown, and Acton business directory. I suspect that this was Arthur Gerald Pearen (1882-1941) who was married to Helen Stewart. His parents were John Edward Pearen (1849-1942) and Hannah Elizabeth Ward (1852-1890). I have no other information about him or his descendants.

A. G. Pearen

The business of grocer is one of constant activity, and ably conducted stores selling goods at popular prices never fail to secure a large patronage. The store of Mr. A. G. Pearen is a case in point. He assumed control of the old established business in April 1916. The premises occupied on Queen Street East, Phone 46, comprise a modern double store of large dimensions. By judicious management and carefully looking after the requirements of customers this house has built up a business of the most substantial character. The store is tastefully fitted up and contains a stock of new fresh goods covering the whole range of choice family groceries, provisions, flour, feed, seeds, boots, shoes, etc. Mr. Pearen is the sole agent here for the Empress shoes. This establishment is regarded as one of the most complete grocery stores in Brampton. The motto of the house is: "Quality first, last and always." This house enjoys a high reputation and the manner in which it is conducted is a sure guarantee that the patronage it receives is of a steady and substantial nature. Competent and courteous clerks are kept constantly busy attending to the wants of patrons, and all orders are filled and delivered with promptness to any part of the town. The proprietor; Mr. A. G. Pearen, is a live, active, hustling business man and it should be said to his credit that he has won success by deserving it.
